'Appy Defeats Ayr Derby Favourite

By THE SCOUT (Cyril Luckman)

BATTLE SONG beat Lord Glanely's English hope Pizarro by eight lengths in the Irish St Leger, and Young England failed to give the weight to Lord Astor's 'Appy and Bonspiel in the Scottish Derby.

The shorter Cambridgeshire distance might still suit Young England better, for he was far from disgraced. It is still probable, however, that Obliterated will be Matt Peacock's best.

Nevett waited with Young England yesterday, but he never really looked like overhauling the winner.

Bonspiel, who had been last, came with a long run to finish a length behind 'Appy and three-quarters in front of the northern favourite. 'Appy was a 9—2 chance.

A Revived Jack Tar

SIRETT had previously won the long-distance handicap on a revived Jack Tar.

Jack Jarvis had all his most-fancied runners—Carlino, Bonspiel, Lone Maid and Sea Legend—beaten, but his own youngster Aubergine just scraped home in a seller.

Jack Tar's Cesarewitch weight is still 7st 7lbs. It had looked a duel between Carlino and Solar Star, but the "Two Jacks" came with a strong final run to overhaul Carlino by three-quarters of a length.

Patrimony started favourite and again tried to make all the running, but Carlino mastered him, this time early in the straight.

Jack Colling sustained the reputation of Newmarket trainers at Yarmouth with a treble—Del Monte, Tityus (who headed the odds-on Satanic) and Pompeia gelding obliging. Beasley rode the last two.

All the races went to headquarters. They scooped the pool both days last year.

The combined ages of owner-trainer George Lambton, Carslake and Pricket made eventful the success of Brownie on the game eight-year-old in a finish of two short-heads with little Straight Deal and Hans Sachs.

Wants Longer Journey

THE Ayrshire Handicap will not be instructive so far as the Cambridgeshire is concerned, for Matt Peacock did not make Cariff one of his prominent entrants.

The good Irish horse wants a longer journey, as he demonstrated when he won at Ascot and left his effort too late at Sandown.

A distance of a mile and three furlongs should suit him all right today so long as they do not allow the light-weights too much rope.

Focus, from the same stable, was much fancied last year, but Harry Peacock's Latoi slipped them all. Latoi will not again be in the field.

There seems a doubt about Milldoria, but Carioca may renew rivalry with Lord Ellesmere's French four-year-old Magnetique, who was a liberal winner in his native land and has a more reasonable weight over here now—13lbs below Cariff.

I think a mile is Calder's distance, but the King's Firestone has only 6st 9lbs and is fancied.

I recall the fine race Trigo Verde ran on the course on the corresponding day last year. She may be a serious danger to Cariff and beat Carioca, Firestone and Magnetique.

More easy money seems to await the owner of Gainsborough Lass against Gordon on Attractive gelding. Dancing Comet may not be a battler, and I prefer to trust that smart old plater Summary and Black Speck in the sprint.

I have gone, however, to Yarmouth for the special selections, and Persse is "bearding" the Newmarket trainers there with Beresonia in a nursery.

She won easily at Lewes and made a good show against Czinzano under a penalty. Thrale might land a double with Bob Each Way and the smart Tough Guy, who will be ridden by Wootton's good lad Thompson.

John James may find it hard to give 3st to Kans—who was runner-up to Muscovado last September on 5lbs worse terms—and I also note Carpet Knight, old Lanson 'and Apple Bloom in the Durham Handicap.

Ted Leader might also win with Roccapina, and there is a big Newmarket tip for Jack Colling's Shireen colt.

Jottings From The Course

By OUR COURSE CORRESPONDENT

YARMOUTH, Wednesday.

LISCLOON must be given another chance. He finished last this afternoon, but I feel sure we did not see him at his best.

Ever optimistic, we pay up—and then look forward to tomorrow to get it back. I see nothing I like better as a retriever than Beresonia in the 3.30 here. While having a "busman's holiday" at the Saturday Folkestone meeting I was much impressed with Persse's youngster, and I think it was really Gordon Richards and not Czinzano who beat her. With P. Beasley in the saddle Beresonia should win tomorrow.
