Ugly RASH

London, W.C.
Dear Sirs, 30th March, 1934
Having suffered for months from an ugly rash on face and neck which made my skin feel as though it was "on fire" and irritated so badly that I thought I should 'tear myself to pieces,' I now write to say that Germolene cured me when all else had failed.
At times I thought I should go mad with the pain and irritation. My face was such a sight that I dreaded going out. I was ashamed to be seen.
The Germolene Skin-Healing Crusade is the finest idea ever thought of for skin sufferers. It persuaded me to try this magic ointment which stopped all itching instantly it was applied, ended the pain and made my skin as fresh and clear as a baby's.
Yours sincerely—(Signed) P.C.

SEPTIC FINGER and WART

London, W.C.1
Dear Sirs, 9th Nov, 1935
Two years ago I suffered with a septic finger and had treatment at a local Hospital, but a bleeding wart developed and grew to the size of a large raspberry. Treatment did this no good so I decided to try Germolene, which gave me ease from the first.
I continued for two months and now it is quite well with no trace whatever, so thanks to Germolene I am all right and my finger normal.
You may use this letter as you think fit.
Yours thankfully —(Signed) Mrs. M. R.

INJURED LEG

North Shields,
Dear Sirs, 21st March, 1936.
I wish to convey my appreciation of your wonder ointment Germolene. An accident at the shipyard caused me terrible pain in my right leg. I tried every kind of remedy almost, but it would not heal. I was at length advised by a friend to use Germolene. I did, and believe me or not, the contents of two boxes effected a cure.
Yours truly
—(Signed) J.R.W.

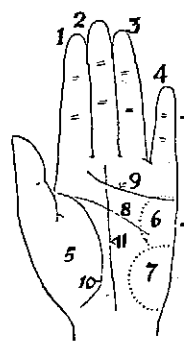
Your HANDS will tell you your TALENTS

Here are three types of women's hands analysed by CHARLOTTE WOLFE
Eminent Hand-reading Expert.

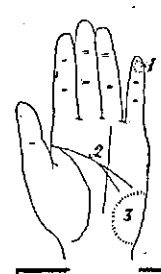
THERE is an extremely simple method of making prints of your own hands.

Grease your left or right hand lightly with a stick of solid brilliantine, then rub it well over both hands. Take two pieces of white paper—get the smoothest you possibly can—and press one of your hands on each piece. Then take one or two teaspoonfuls of graphite powder, or, even better, "bioxide of copper," which you can buy in any shop where chemicals are sold.

Move the powder backwards and forwards over the impressions, and you will see that the "line picture" of your hands is developed as though on a photographic plate. Fix the impressions with the fixative used for charcoal drawings.



1, Finger of Jupiter. 2, Finger of Saturn. 3, Finger of Apollo. 4, Finger of Mercury. 5, Mount of Venus. 6, Mount of Mars. 7, Mount of the Moon. 8, Line of head. 9, Line of heart. 10, Line of life. 11, Line of destiny.



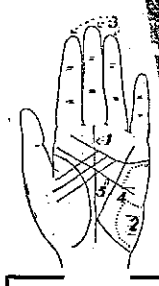
1, Finger of Mercury very well shaped, with a bump of sensibility. 2, Line of head coming from the Mount of Venus, and very well curved. 3, Mount of the Moon.

ACTRESS

THIS small hand overcrowded with lines belongs to a well-known star.

The best formed finger of this hand is the Mercury finger, which, provided with a berry of sensibility, is a sign of physical dexterity and histrionic talent. The histrionic talent, moreover, is further revealed by the broad Moon Mountain, which starts low down in the hand.

The smallness of the hand, the short nails (which you cannot see here), and the strong, forked head-line indicate (1) concentration, ability to see things in perspective, and a critical sense: (2) irritability and a tendency to make the highest demand on her own capacities; (3) impulsiveness, impatience, quick, often over-hurried, decisions; (4) intelligence.



1, Line of destiny. 2, Mount of Moon with many lines. 3, Straight and short fingers with the under phalanges swollen—and a long palm. 4, Line of intuition. 5, Line of head.

SALESWOMAN

THIS woman is an extraordinarily talented saleswoman in one of the biggest dressmaking businesses in Paris. The energetic fate-line, which cuts diagonally through the hand, shows a life devoted to well-directed effort.

Her fitness for her profession is indicated by the following qualities: (1) Imagination, taste, and love of luxury. See the crowded Moon Mountain, the fingers with their straight axes, and their thickened lower phalanges. (2) Manual dexterity and a gift of sympathy (see the line of intuition running into the Mercury Mountain).

(3) Intelligence and ability to see things in perspective (see the short fingers in relation to the palm). (4) Quick reactions (see the smallness of the hand and the rhythm of the lines).

1, Line of life. 2, Line of heart. 3, Line of head. 4, Line of destiny. 5, Line of intuition 6, Mount of Venus well developed, specially in the upper part, in which we see the love for children and animals

HOUSEWIFE

I GIVE the housewife a place among the professional types and show a hand with essentially feminine peculiarities fitting its owner to make a good housewife.

(1) Simplicity and clearness of the sense life (the hand is poor in lines; the chief lines, however, are clearly defined).

(2) The gift of sympathy and psychological understanding without any desire for self-assertion (see the long intuition line in the Mercury Mountain connected with the heart-line ending before the Jupiter Mountain).

(3) Vitality and generosity (strong Venus Mountain and wide spaces between the fingers).

(4) Love of nature and children (the upper part of the Venus Mountain forms a second small Venus Mountain).

Gardeners' Plot

A mistake often made when transplanting spring cabbages is to put the plants too far apart in the bed.

Distances must, of course, vary with size and the sort of cabbage grown, but plants which are reasonably close together protect each other from severe weather in winter, and also make better and earlier hearts than those which have been allowed too much room. G. H. B. B.

Show them what a good cook you are!
There's no better way to successful cake and pastry making than this. Use plain flour, vary the amount of "raising" for different recipes, and make sure the "raising" is Borwick's Baking Powder, the best in the world. Good cooks use Borwick's.

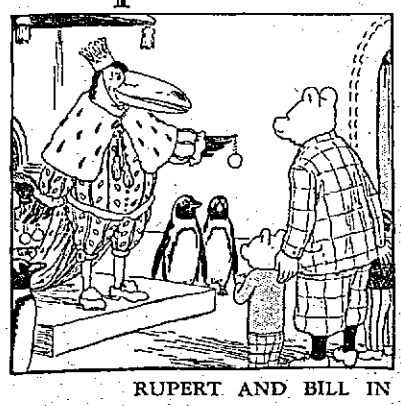
Rupert Leaves The Palace



RUPERT AND BILL IN THE TREE TOPS—No. 22

The King now bids his guests good-bye,
And gives to each a medal gold;
Then strong birds lift them up on high,
And take them home, as they were told,

The King makes a speech thanking Dr Bruno for curing him, and as a token of his gratitude he presents them each with a fine gold medal.

Then he summons his messengers, and Rupert, Bill and Uncle Bruno say good-bye after promising to visit him some time. The powerful birds whirl them into the air and all the birds of the kingdom come to see them off.

★ HOROSCOPE ★

Is It Your Birthday?

Thursday, September 17.

GO in and win: the stars shine benignly for you. Whether your hopes and ambitions lie in the realm of love or work you should be able to attain your desires this year.

The background of your life should be happy and contented; disagreements and worries will find a way of settling themselves, while friends and family aid your progress.

It will be a very fortunate year for all who live by the pen. Ideas will be plentiful and markets accommodating.

Those with children will find that one distinguishes himself in some way, showing promise of unusual intelligence or of literary ability.

Children born today will be adaptable, artistic, generous and impulsive. They will be very affectionate.

TODAY FOR ALL READERS.—A successful and harmonious day. Make plans, start new business ventures. Fortunate for all social activities, friendship, marriage or courtship. Write letters or sign agreements.

Polishes Preserves and Perfumes Furniture

The genuine Lavender Polish for Furniture

'LAVENDO' is the wonderful new preparation which cleans, polishes, preserves, and perfumes furniture. Combined with the finest cleansing and polishing agents, it contains genuine essential oil of lavender, which imparts to your rooms the refreshing fragrance of an old-world garden instead of the unpleasant 'polish smell' of ordinary preparations. The success of 'LAVENDO' has resulted in many inferior so-called 'lavender polishes' being put on the market. So be sure you get genuine 'LAVENDO,' which is made only by Wm. Wren & Co. Ltd., Northampton. Sold by all stores, including Boots, Timothy Whites and Taylors. Resolutely refuse all imitations.
