BUSINESSES FOR SALE

3/- per line. Average 6 words. Minimum 2 lines.

The recognised daily feature for all trades.

Conditions governing acceptance of Classified Advertisements.

The following general details and conditions applying to Classified advertisements should be noted:

(1) The cost per line in each classification appears prominently. A line consists of approximately six average words. There is a minimum of two lines.

(2) The Daily Express reserves the right to decline any advertisement.

(3) Advertisements received before 2 p.m. will be inserted in the following day's issue wherever possible, but the Daily Express is not to be responsible if, owing to insertion of an advertisement on any specified date, and received in time to insert it on any of the three following days unless especially instructed to the contrary, and this shall be accepted as a perfect balance of the order.

(4) The Daily Express, while taking every care in the acceptance and printing of advertisements, is not to be liable for any errors or omissions in any such advertisements or any consequences thereof.

(5) Advertisers requiring a box number are charged for this service. And the address of the office must be paid for as part of the advertisement. (This excludes one full line.)

(6) All advertisements must be accompanied by the full name and address of the actual advertiser, with remittance for the amount payable, and should be addressed to the Manager, Classified Advertising, Daily Express, Fleet-street, London, E.C.4. Advertisements may also be telephoned, Central 8000 and ask for "Classified Advertisements".
